THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

"Spring is sooner recognized by plants than by men."

– Chinese Proverb

Our thoughts and prayers go out to friends and relatives who reside in Christchurch and Canterbury, as they are still experiencing hundreds of after-shocks following the devastating earthquake two weeks ago. These are mentally challenging for them, and cause more stress through lack of sleep, as it is the ones that occur during the night that upsets them most.

Enclosed you will find an Italian Film Festival brochure, and also a leaflet for the Annual Italian Festival which is on this Sunday, 26 September at the Westpac Stadium. (See my report further down)

The Annual General Meeting has been set for Sunday, 10 October 2010 at the clubrooms at 7pm, so October will be a busy month as well with a Family Night and the visit from Nelson's Club Italia.

Ciao a presto
Ginette Toscano Page

ALDO CUCCURULLO MEMORIAL TROPHY FOOTBALL CHALLENGE

One of the biggest social events of the year – the annual game of football against Club Italia, Nelson – will be held on Saturday, 23 October, the first day of Labour Weekend. This year it is Club Garibaldi's turn, holders of the Aldo Cuccurullo Memorial Trophy for the last five years, to host the game which will be played at Te Whaea Park Artificial Turf, Hutchison Road, just above the old Winter Show Buildings, Newtown. Kick-off is at 3.00 pm. Come along and support the team as well as our visitors from Nelson.

The Club will also host Club Italia's football team and supporters on the Saturday night with a shared dinner to be held at the clubrooms from 6.30pm. This is always a great night so don't miss it. Club members are asked to bring two dishes of their fine food to share with our visitors.

On the Sunday, 24 October – members, families, friends, supporters and Nelson visitors are encouraged to get together for more social interaction over lunch at midday at the James Cook Centra on The Terrace, Wellington. The delicious buffet meal is $30.00 for adults, and only $1.50 for 5 to 12 year olds. Under 5's are free. If we have enough people, James Cook Centra will give us a private dining room, so we need to know how many are attending. Please let Maria Colucci know if you are attending, and how many will be in your group (including children) asap or before Wednesday 20 October.

ZOCCOLI

Original hand-made Italian zoccoli

In the 15th century the first zoccoli appeared in Italy. At that time zoccoli had a 20cm heel in the rear and a kind of high plateau in the front. Probably the first zoccoli might have been also the first high heels! It was very difficult to walk in those zoccoli, but of course they were pretty stylish and so zoccoli became popular in the trend-setting city centres of style, arts and culture like Venice.

Today's zoccoli

Florio's 1611 dictionary describes Zoccoli as "wooden pattins, startops, galoshes or chopinos, so called because they are made of a Zocco," a zocco being a log, branch, or stump. Zoccoli are also mentioned in Moda, where their wedge shaped wood is described as legniacci, from the word legno, which refers to "any kind of wood," from Florio.

In Italy all wooden open summer sandals are called zoccoli. In Europe and the United States, zoccoli are called clogs, which are made of wood, cork, and/or acrylic and leather, and either flat or high heeled.

ITALIAN FESTIVAL NEW ZEALAND REPORT Ginette Toscano Page, President

Only a few days to go now, in fact – this coming weekend Sunday, 26 September 2010. I am really looking forward to this year's festival because it is going to show Wellington how far Club Garibaldi has progressed forward over the last 128 years. I am sure our forbearers would never have envisaged such growth that would facilitate us holding an Italian Festival at the largest venue in the City. I invite all our members and their families and friends to join me for a wonderful day where we can 'soak in the success' of our people in New Zealand, and be proud to be Italian. Thousands will be travelling from all over the country to enjoy our produce, food, music, entertainment, singing, dancing, fashion parades, along with that special atmosphere that only we, the people and descendants of Italia can create.

My thanks in advance to those who have kindly offered to make home cooked dolci and cakes. Please bring them directly to our cake stall on the day. This, along with the dozens of voluntary helpers is so important. The festival is the only event in which the club is actively involved in fundraising each year.

The entry tickets: Adults $8.00, Children 5-12 years $5.00 - include a chance to Win a trip to Italy. Under 5's free. Tickets are available at the gate, however to save time and queuing, you can book your ticket online at Ticketek at www.ticketek.co.nz or telephone: 0800 TICKETEK. Stadium car parking is only $6.00 for the whole day.

Please note: The club will be closed on Sunday, 26 September, because of the Italian Festival.

For more information and the latest news visit www.theitalianfestivalnewzealand.com or you can contact Antonio Cacace direct on email: events@labellaitalia.co.nz Robin and I are also available to answer any questions.

CLUB GARIBALDI FOOD, WINE AND CULTURAL STALLS AT THE FESTIVAL

Our sincere thanks go out to Salve Volpicelli from Fish Fins in Newtown, and also to Moore Wilson Ltd, Wellington City for sponsoring our stalls this year.

THE THREE MUSKETEERS STAGE PRODUCTION

By Mark Da Vanzo

classic. I think there is a real attraction to classic theatre in Wellington, especially classic theatre with swords! What has been especially rewarding in being involved in this particular production is to work with fight choreographer Allan Henry. Alongside our standard rehearsals we have fight training where we learn the intricacies of 17th Century swordplay. I was pleased to learn that when compared to the French, the Italians were far more flamboyant in their fighting, opting for flair over efficiency. It may have meant that they got beaten more often but they sure looked good in losing!

And there's more than one Garibaldi member involved too! My wife, Heather Da Vanzo, has been brought in to make and source the many props that are required for this production. From swords to strings of onions, silver trays to tankards, Heather has had her work cut out. It's not easy when every prop has to be consistent with the period the play is set in. Our kitchen has turned into a bit of a laboratory as Heather makes paper-mache hams (I'm sure it's Prosciutto) and discoloured writing paper using various strengths of tea to get the right colour!

All in all, it looks like it's going to be a great production and I have heard that ticket sales are going very well so it promises to be a great success.

The Three Musketeers plays at the Gryphon Theatre, 22 Ghuznee Street from 1 – 11 September. Bookings, ph 0508ticket (0508 484253) or book online at www.stagecraft.co.nz

*Congratulations Mark, on being cast as the character Athos – we know you will be just great! Ginette

I have always thought that you have an advantage if you decide to take up acting and have an Italian surname as I'm sure Robert De Niro, Al Pacino and Leonardo DiCaprio would agree. So in some ways it was inevitable that one of the Da Vanzo boys would take to the stage at some point. I've been involved in Wellington theatre for the past 25 years, during which time I have been fortunate enough to work on numerous productions in a variety of front stage and backstage roles. In more recent years I have established myself as a director and again, the Italian surname is an advantage with Scorsese, Benigni and Fellini coming to mind.

I haven't acted in over 8 years so it was a real thrill to be cast as Athos in Stagecraft theatre's production of The Three Musketeers, an excellent stage adaptation by Dr Joy Hellyer of the Alexandre Dumas

R.I.P. CAV. GIORGIO LUPI – 1921-2010

Giorgio Lupi was born in Venice in 1921 and died recently in Wellington, aged 89 years. He was a long standing member of Club Garibaldi. Giorgio was awarded the Order of Merit of the Republic of Italy for his services to the teaching of Italian and to the contribution he made to Italian culture here in New Zealand. Some of you will recall receiving the regular bulletin he produced while working at the Italian Embassy. Giorgio also taught Italian to children in Italian community in Island Bay where the start of each lesson began with the singing of 'Volare'. He will be sadly missed.

FOUND – ITALIAN PRAYER BOOK

A very old Italian prayer book titled Manuale di Preghiere – Madonna Di Pompei, was recently found in the Church of St Bernard, Brooklyn, Wellington. Although the name of the owner is not written in the book, it appears the owner could be from Stromboli as most of the names on the Death Memorial Cards and a few small notes on a separate sheet of paper carry Strombolani names. I have made a few enquiries among the community but have not yet found the owner. If you know who it belongs to please contact me (Ginette).

This will be the last social in the Circolo's 2010 calendar - don't miss this opportunity!! A $4.00 cover charge towards supper will apply.

Join us as we celebrate the opening of the 15th Italian Film festival in Wellington, featuring the premier of 'Many Kisses Later (Tanti baci dopo)'. A romantic comedy about that crazy little thing called love. It does indeed begin with declarations of love and plenty of kisses, but the question is raised: does love go on?

ARTSPLASH – 2010

By Sophia Basile – aged 12 years

Last month about 10,000 school children performed dance, music, theatre, wearable art and visual art over five nights to capacity crowds at the Michael Fowler Centre and Opera House. In its 23rd year, it is a special event for primary and intermediate school children throughout the greater Wellington area, which makes it unique as far as anything else in New Zealand goes. The following paragraphs is written in Sophia's own words:

'Throughout term 3, me and three friends worked on a Wearable Arts costume. The costume had to be made with a theme which was Maori myths - we decided to do a bird, from the myth Whataitai and Ngake. Our costume had lots of different parts and materials to it. We had wings, a tail, various bows throughout the costume, and a flax head piece and belt.'

The first decision our group had to make was the hardest - who would model the costume? Our names were drawn out of a hat several times, and each time my name came out so I got to present our group's costume on the night. I really enjoyed doing this activity with my friends, and it was a great experience!'

(Sophia is the daughter of Alfonso and Penny Basile of Miramar)

A BIT OF TRIVIA

DECIBEL TEST TO SETTLE CELEBRITY ROOSTER'S FUTURE

ANSA - Milan, 20 August 2010

The fate of a rooster whose early morning crows have annoyed neighbours and made him a celebrity in a northern Italian town, is to be decided by a decibel test. It will be carried out by the Italian Animal Rights Association to settle a dispute between the bird's owners, who live on the ground floor of an apartment block and the tenants of the apartment above. The owners have promised that the rooster will not end up on a dinner table, even if the decibel test says the screeching is beyond acceptable levels. They said they will find him a home, which should not be hard given that the animal is something of a local star! The owners bought the rooster in the hope of having a regular supply of fresh eggs and gave it a female name, Pia, only to realize it was not a hen!
